3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,560 sqft

Residential on 0.31 Acres

N/A, Beacon, NY

Welcome to 54 Cross Street! Classic 1930 three bedroom and one and a half bath colonial home, on 1/3 of an acre corner property, steps to Beacon's™ bustling Main Street. This charming home boasts a lovely entrance with transom window and sidelights, leading to foyer with handsome staircase, arched doorways, cost closet, and gleaming hardwood floors throughout. Large open living room, with plenty of room for entertaining, a wood-burning brick fireplace with decorative mantel, and plenty of light from two sets of picture windows - leading to screened porch, perfect for lounging and outdoor dining. Formal dining room overlooks expansive front yard. Updated eat-in kitchen with stainless steel appliances, Silestone countertops, range with vent hood, maple shaker cabinets, and original built-in corner cabinet. Powder room conveniently located in back hall, with access to back porch. Second floor with light-filled alcove, perfect for reading nook or office area. Generously sized primary bedroom with windows on three sides, double closets, and plenty of room to create a sitting room. Updated full bathroom with soaking tub, tile surround and niche. Second bedroom with built in shelves, and third bedroom with beautiful sunset views. Full attic for storage. New roof (summer 2024), 2019 boiler, two zone heat, 200 amp service and central air conditioning. Full basement with laundry with plenty of storage. Two car garage with potential for studio and workshop space.

Beautiful home with sprawling lawn, minutes to Main Street, DIA:Beacon, the Hudson River and Metro North for easy access to New York City.

Built in 1930
