There must be something in the air at the Alton House—it's like a magnet for creative energy! The original owner was a renowned muralist, and his wife a professional pianist. Today, the current owners continue the legacy, thriving as successful artists and creatives.

From the outside, this mid-century modern home may seem unassuming, but don't let its modest exterior fool you. Inside, it's a place where expansive and intimate spaces blend seamlessly. The foyer opens into a cozy living room with a wood-burning fireplace, and a striking feature—a floor-to-ceiling retractable wall—separates the living room from the spacious, open-concept dining and family room. This area has doors leading out to the terrace, plus a small office tucked nearby.

At the heart of the home, the updated kitchen is central to daily life. The first floor also includes two bedrooms, a fully renovated hall bath, and a primary suite with a beautifully remodeled ensuite bath.

Downstairs, you'll discover an additional 1,357 square feet of living space, perfect for entertaining. The lower level includes a family room, the homeowner's art studio, a flex room currently used as a guest room, a full bath, laundry, and ample storage.

The two-tier deck off the kitchen and family room is an idyllic spot to unwind after a busy day, and the fully fenced backyard offers a safe haven for pets, kids, and adults alike. Cherished by every owner, this home is ready for you to move in and add your own touch of magic. Welcome home!
