Commercial Sale on 0.55 Acres

N/A, Lake Peekskill, NY

This versatile commercial property, formerly a synagogue, offers a unique opportunity in the heart of Putnam Valley, NY. Featuring a flexible layout, the building is ideal for religious institutions, professional offices, warehouse storage, or other commercial uses. The spacious sanctuary and meeting areas provide ample room for worship services, conferences, or large gatherings, while multiple offices and classrooms make it well-suited for administrative, educational, or business purposes. A fully equipped kitchen and fellowship hall offer the perfect space for hosting events and receptions. The expansive interior includes warehouse and storage space, ideal for inventory, equipment, or even a private car or motorcycle collection. With ample on-site parking and excellent accessibility to major roads and highways, this property is convenient for both business and personal use. Zoned for a variety of applications, it also presents a great redevelopment opportunity for professional offices, community centers, or storage facilities. This is a rare chance to own a multi-use commercial building in a thriving community.
