Welcome to Mount Kisco, where urban convenience meets small-town charm, and life unfolds with effortless ease. With boutiques, bistros, and a delightful movie theater lining the walkable streets, this tight-knit, 3-mile-wide haven is rich in local spirit. And nestled right in the middle of it all is a lovely 3-bedroom cape that offers the very same warmth and joy this town is known for. From the moment you step inside, you're wrapped in comfort. The large living and dining areas invite you in with the gentle glow of an alluring fireplace, while whispers of original details hint at the home's timeless character.
