A Rare Find in Pelham Manor – A Two-Family Home That Lives Like Two Single Residences

This exceptional pre-war, two-family home in Pelham Manor offers the charm and privacy of two distinct semi-attached residences. With classic architectural details and a prime location, this is a rare opportunity in Westchester.

Each home features a welcoming foyer that leads into a spacious living room and formal dining room, all highlighted by hardwood floors, elegant moldings, archways, first floor powder room and high ceilings. The second floor offers three generous bedrooms and a full bath, with walk-up access to a full attic that provides incredible bonus storage. The full basement includes private utilities, laundry, additional storage, and a door leading to the back garden and patio.

Perfectly positioned for commuters, this home is just minutes from Metro-North's Pelham Station, offering a quick and convenient ride into Manhattan. Easy access to I-95, the Hutchinson River Parkway, and the Cross County Parkway makes travel throughout the Tri-State area effortless.

Located near the highly sought-after Pelham Memorial High School, Siwanoy Elementary, and the vibrant Village of Pelham, this home offers the perfect blend of suburban tranquility and urban convenience.
