3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,550 sqft

Residential on 0.03 Acres

Bolton Gardens, Bronxville, NY

This classic 1920s™ Tudor-style townhome is nestled in an English mews like setting directly across from the Bronxville School. This home has been meticulously updated and maintained. Blending modern elegance with pre-war charm, 11 Bolton Gardens offers a seamless open floor plan ideal for contemporary living in the center of Bronxville Village.

The first floor features white oak flooring throughout, a chef's™ kitchen with stainless steel appliances, marble countertops, a wood burning fireplace and an abundance of natural light. Outdoor spaces include a front porch overlooking the cul-de-sac and a private stone patio in back for dining/entertaining alfresco. The second floor has two large bedrooms and a renovated marble bathroom. The third floor boasts a rare private primary suite complete with a spa-like bath with radiant floor heating, high ceilings, great closet space, and two exposures.

The lower level (not counted in the square footage) has a playroom, a laundry room, and ample storage space. There are two central air zones. Immediate assigned outdoor parking for one car and waitlist for a second space or onsite garage.

Located across from the Bronxville School, steps away from the public library and the charming Village with its movie theater, restaurants, shops, seasonal Farmers Market, tennis courts, Bronx River walking path and Metro North train station. 30 minute train ride to Grand Central Station. 11 Bolton Gardens is one of the most convenient places to live within the Village of Bronxville.

Built in 1922
