Your part of Peekskill's history awaits! Sited between the Civil War Monument and the Revolutionary War era Mandeville's Corner of Main and North Division is your new downtown home! Completely renovated in 2014, enter the ground level of 160 North Division and discover a large, flexible living space with a wet bar and full bathroom. Exercise, entertaining, guests - or all of the above - the sky is the limit here. Head upstairs to the home's main living level with its beautiful wide plank floors and inviting light. The chef's kitchen features a convenient prep island and pantry and it is open to the large dining area. Guests will appreciate the half bath on this level too. Out back is a large patio, perfect for summer entertaining that includes a hot tub! Look across the street to your beautiful view of the 1905 Gothic Revival St. Peter's Church. When it's time to relax, head up one more flight and find two comfortable bedrooms with ample closet space and vaulted ceilings. There's a full bath and convenient full-size laundry in the hall. The home's renovations include many smart energy choices including a fully owned solar system on the roof -- you will have the smallest energy bill on the block! Heating is from a super efficient heat-pump and ductless air conditioning system. Hot water comes from a on-demand propane Navien heater. Your new home also includes a second .05 acre lot on Neighbor Lane. Head out the back gate and across the lane for your own downtown off-street parking. Neighbor Lane is easily accessed from both Diven and Paulding Streets.
