3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 1,356 sqft

Residential on 0.12 Acres

N/A, Ossining, NY

Enter into the charm of this beautifully maintained Sears and Roebuck Cape-Cod, where timeless character meets modern comfort. Nestled in a welcoming and desirable Ossining neighborhood, with charming window boxes that add warmth and enhance the curb appeal. Inside, original hardwood floors flow throughout the bright, sun-filled spaces, perfectly positioned to capture the breathtaking glow of the sunset from the west. The fully remodeled farm-style kitchen is a showstopper, featuring white quartz countertops, shaker style cabinetry, reclaimed wood for open shelving and adjacent, open-concept dining area. The formal (yet casual) living room is spacious and ideal for entertaining and a powder room on this level for added convenience. There are 3-bedrooms and a full bathroom on the upper level with attic space for additional storage. The home is outfitted with new windows (installed in 2020 including the basement). Outdoors, a gardener's dream awaits - perennial gardens include irises, peonies, roses, dahlias, hibiscus, and berry bushes, plus over 500 tulips that bloom each spring. The backyard patio offers a tranquil retreat, perfect for relaxing under the stars with the company of fireflies on summer nights. The unfinished basement includes a small workshop room and attached garage providing vehicle parking, ample storage or space for a home gym plus a driveway for off-street parking. Conveniently located minutes from the train station, you can be in Grand Central in approximately 40 minutes or travel north to enjoy the scenic Hudson Valley. Close to parks, schools, downtown Ossining, and the waterfront, this home offers the perfect blend of bucolic serenity and suburban convenience. Don't miss your chance to make this enchanting home your own!

Built in 1949
