If a red brick colonial home, complete with a wood-burning fireplace, is what you have been picturing and dreaming of for your future, then here is your chance.

Seize the rare and special opportunity to live in a level neighborhood on a property with a large flat yard in Hastings- on-Hudson! This property spans over a third of an acre, where a massive Magnolia tree and bed of daffodils will greet you each spring, with plenty of space to grow vegetables and flowers, and still room for the patio and lawn furniture, a trampoline, a game of catch, and more!

60 Ravensdale has three ample-sized bedrooms, an office area separated from the primary bedroom (but could be converted into a large walk-in closet), original hardwood floors throughout, a darling powder room on the main level, and a 375+ square foot basement that is ready for gaming, exercising, puzzle-building, music-making, laundry, or even just lounging.

Hastings-on-Hudson is known for a quick, scenic commute to NYC for work and pleasure, and also for a thriving farmer's market, great restaurants and coffee shops, riverfront views and sunsets, shopping, the Old Croton Aqueduct, and easy access to the North-South County Trailway for biking, walking and jogging.
