Classic Cape on a Rare Triple Lot in the Heart of Beacon – 2,527 Sq Ft of Charm & Space! Welcome to this beautifully maintained Cape-style home located in Beacon, one of the most sought-after areas in Dutchess County. Offering 2,527 finished square feet on a rare triple lot totaling .39 acre, this home provides the perfect combination of space, character, and location. Enjoy outdoor living with two large decks, a covered front porch, and a fully fenced, professionally landscaped yard—ideal for entertaining, relaxing, or enjoying peaceful mornings and sunset evenings. Inside, the main level features a bright and inviting eat-in kitchen, cozy living room, two spacious bedrooms, and a full bath. The second floor offers two more bedrooms and another full bath, giving you flexibility for guests, a home office, or extra family space. The partially finished basement includes a gathering or office area, storage room, laundry room, and an attached one-car garage. A newly parged chimney adds to the home's solid structure and charming curb appeal. All of this is set in a vibrant community known for its art, culture, restaurants, and scenic Hudson River views.
