Move right into this beautifully renovated 4-bedroom, 4-bath Cape Cod, nestled on a large lot in a quiet neighborhood near downtown Carmel. This charming home offers a perfect blend of modern upgrades and classic charm, featuring a sun-filled living room with a wood-burning fireplace, gleaming hardwood floors with two floor outlets, and tranquil views of nature.

The updated open-concept kitchen is outfitted with high-quality cabinetry, granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, heated floors, and a convenient walkout to the deck—ideal for outdoor dining and entertaining. Main floor windows are "tilt-in" for easy cleaning. The first floor includes a convenient primary bedroom suite with a private bathroom, complete with heated floors and a heated towel rack. The finished basement (rec room) offers abundant space for entertainment and storage, including a large laundry room, half bath, and a workshop (converted from a garage) with a separate walkout entrance. The rec room has its own electric baseboard heating source. An interior perimeter drain system keeps the basement exceptionally dry.

Recent upgrades include a brand new 200-amp electric service with new wiring, ductless mini-split for A/C and Heat, a Generac whole-house generator with automatic transfer switch, and new window shades throughout the main floor”among other thoughtful improvements.

Excellent commuter location”close to highways, Metro-North train, shopping, and restaurants. The Rail Trail bike path and Centennial Golf Course are just around the corner, while Thunder Ridge Ski Area and several scenic state parks are only a short drive away.
