On Hemlock Road, just up the pleasant winding lane from Bronxville School and athletic track, youâ€™ll find a home on a picturesque flat lot in the heart of Masterton Woods at number 21. This colonial offers an enviable location just a stoneâ€™s throw from all that the village has to offer. Flooded with natural light all day with a southern facing front door, the house features high ceilings, warm oak floors, central air, and is in immaculate condition.

The first floor of this 1924 home features a living room with gracious built ins, a wood burning fireplace, and both south and west exposures. The expansive sun room boasts cathedral ceilings and direct access to a private patio, overlooking a professionally landscaped garden and fenced in yard. The kitchen, a true highlight, features French doors opening to a spacious deckâ€”ideal for indoor-outdoor living. The first floor is finished off with a 1/2 bath, a dining room that easily seats 8, and a proper entry foyer with coat closet and the most charming Dutch door.

On the second level there are four bedrooms. The primary has an en-suite bath and two closets. Two equal size bedrooms on the west wing are bright and sunny, and the fourth bedroom has been ingeniously converted to a walk in closet for the primary. Both the en suite and hallway baths are clean and fresh with white subway tile.

The third floor is a great flex space and has air conditioning, gorgeous bathroom with deep soaking tub, storage and dreamy window seats that make you want to curl up with a book in the sunshine.

The lower level adds approximately 800 square feet of flexible space, with a European-style full bath and sauna, plus room for a gym or playroom. Enjoy the convenience of a one-car detached garage.
