5 Bedroom, 4.00 Bathroom, 3,478 sqft

Residential on 0.39 Acres

N/A, New Rochelle, NY

A rare gem in the heart of Paine Heights, one of New Rochelle's most coveted neighborhoods. This distinguished 1924 Tudor Revival invites you into a world where old-world grandeur meets modern potential. Set on a lush .39-acre lot, this architectural treasure offers 3,500 sq ft of elegant living space, plus a 1,014 sq ft walk-out basement—ready to be tailored to your lifestyle. From the moment you step into the dramatic formal foyer, you™re met with a sense of scale and sophistication that continues throughout. The home features beautiful marble terrazzo floors upon entry and also in two additional rooms, original hardwood floors throughout, a stunning original stained-glass window on the landing, and multiple walk-in closets including a rare cedar closet. The heart of the home is an expansive open-concept entertainment space, perfect for hosting unforgettable gatherings, with original detailing that whispers of its rich history. With 5 generous bedrooms and 3.1 bathrooms, the layout is both versatile and inviting. The primary suite boasts a vaulted 20™ ceiling, offering a truly dramatic retreat. The home also features a set-up perfect for a private in-law or nanny suite on the main level. The walk-out basement can easily be finished, adding over 1,000 additional square feet of usable space, including unique features such as an ~old style™ wine cellar. Classic stucco exterior, arched doorways, and handcrafted wood accents enhance the home™s timeless charm and stately curb appeal. A 2-car garage, long driveway that accommodates over 7 vehicles, a large flat and completely usable backyard, and beautifully proportioned rooms complete this one-of-a-kind offering. The property is within walking distance to places of worship, Albert Leonard School, and close proximity to highways.
