Wake up to awe-inspiring water views from your Juliet balcony, coffee in hand, soaking in the sounds of feathered symphony and gentle ripples. The front yard offers plenty of flat green space, perfect for pups, play, or a friendly game of catch. The cul-de-sac is home to just a few other lakefront properties, each lovingly landscaped with flowers and charm—truly a hidden gem where neighbors care and nature flourishes. Step inside, and the magic continues. The home welcomes you with three entrances—front, side, and back—each revealing a new layer of warmth and character. The living room is pure comfort, with a wood-burning brick fireplace, exposed wood-beamed ceilings, and built-ins full of charm. The oversized dining room offers breathtaking lake views for every meal, every gathering, every moment. Watch ducks glide, birds swoop, and the reflection of the sky dance across the water. The first-floor primary bedroom is oversized and restful, with ample closet space. A cozy den/office area upon entry, a full first floor bath with rare cedar walls, and two additional upstairs bedrooms with a second full bath complete the generous layout. Want more?
