Set in the sought-after Howell Park neighborhood, this striking Tudor home combines timeless architectural character with an unbeatable location. Distinguished by its turret, slate roof, and stained-glass windows, the residence is filled with natural light and one-of-a-kind details that set it apart.

A gracious bluestone entry with a powder room leads into a spacious living room anchored by a wood-burning fireplace. Pocket French doors open to the inviting family room with soaring vaulted ceilings, while the sunlit dining room overlooks the lush garden. The renovated kitchen is designed for both function and style, featuring granite countertops, stainless steel appliances, custom cabinetry, a built-in office nook, and a vaulted eat-in area with doors to both an enclosed deck and an expansive outdoor deck—perfect for entertaining year-round.

The primary suite, just a half flight up, feels like a private retreat with its en-suite bath, two walk-in California closets, and a Juliet balcony. Half a level above are two additional spacious bedrooms, a storybook nursery tucked into the turret, and a full bath. Six steps up, a bright fifth bedroom offers versatility for guests or a home office.

The lower level provides even more flexible living space, including a maid's room with en-suite bath, a large family room/gym with a wood-burning fireplace, abundant storage, utilities, a laundry room, and access to the oversized garage.

49 Carleon is more than just a home—it's a lifestyle. Offering architectural charm, versatile living spaces, and a coveted address in one of Larchmont's most desirable neighborhoods, this residence is just a five-minute walk to the Larchmont Train Station, downtown shops and dining, Turtle Park, the grocery store, and even Central Elementary, Hommocks Middle School, and Mamaroneck High School.
