Welcome to 29 Cotswold Dr, a meticulously maintained single-family townhouse in North Salem, blending modern sophistication with serene natural beauty. Lovingly owned by the same family since the late 1980s, this home offers a rare first-floor primary suite for effortless single-level living, plus a second bedroom on the top floor with its own private bathroom.

Inside, original quarter-sawn oak floors with a natural finish flow throughout, complemented by a cozy wood-burning fireplace in the living area, perfect for relaxing evenings. Anderson sliding glass doors (installed 2022) open to a private deck, framed by wild raspberry vines cascading over a stone wall, creating a tranquil retreat. The professionally landscaped lawn showcases a rare yellow magnolia “Lois” shade tree, developed by the Brooklyn Botanical Gardens, alongside dogwood, Japanese maple, and pine trees. Vibrant flower beds with hydrangeas, peonies, and more add seasonal charm. The property backs onto protected, densely wooded forest land, part of North Salem’s 2009 open-space plan, ensuring privacy and natural splendor.

The remodeled kitchen (2008) is a chef’s dream, featuring handmade ceramic backsplash tiles from Pratt & Larson, a checkerboard floor of white marble and black granite tiles, and a custom stainless steel countertop with a seamlessly braised Blanco sink by Danbury Sheet Metal. Black quartz composite countertops and custom Omega Cabinetry with quarter-sawn oak doors and Sun Valley Bronze pulls offer both style and functionality. Bosch appliances and a custom window seat with cushions complete this inviting space. Elegant Tech Lighting pendant fixtures illuminate the foyer and dining area, enhancing the home’s warm ambiance.
