Residential on 0.01 Acres

St Andrews Homeowner's Assoc,
Hastings-on-Hudson, NY

Designed by Robert A.M. Stern Architect, the residences at St. Andrews are within a beautifully landscaped, gated-community surrounded by the gorgeous grounds of the Saint Andrews Golf Club. This Prestwick model home is an exquisite, corner unit bathed in natural light. Perched on a small hill, this unit is surrounded by greenery, yet conveniently located to the many amenities available to residents: a newly rebuilt swimming pool, renovated pickle ball & tennis courts, and high-end fitness center at the Carnegie Club. A breathtaking place to call home, this 4-bedroom, 3.5 (renovated) bathroom unit spreads across 3 levels and 3470 sq ft. The welcoming entrance and main floor feature an open floor plan with a bright expansive living room, dining area, wood-burning fireplace, hardwood floors, powder room and a stunning kitchen complete with a large Cambria-quartz island, built-in Jenn-Air microwave drawer and Bosch dishwasher, plus a show-stopping, custom cobalt-blue glass backsplash behind a Fisher Paykal stove and breakfast nook. Additional highlights include a wrap-around, new, Trex deck off the dining area and attached garage off the main level. In the upper level you find the spacious primary bedroom suite with luxurious bathroom, plus laundry, two additional bedrooms and hallway bathroom.

The lower level includes the fourth bedroom, another full bathroom, an expansive flexible space perfect for a family room where there is the second fireplace and sliders to a covered patio plus a large storage room. The residents and guests of St. Andrews benefit from dining privileges at the Club's restaurant, are less than an hour from Midtown, and close to Westchester's major roadways, shopping malls and restaurants.
