Residential on 1.65 Acres

N/A, Newburgh, NY

Bright & Open Contemporary Cape on 1.6 acres: This beautiful home was completely rebuilt in 2007 and is a wonderfully modern take on a traditional Cape-style home. The success of the design is immediately evident when you come in the front door and are greeted with a 2-story living room with wonderful light, a dramatic staircase that turns into an open hallway/balcony for the 2nd floor bedrooms, and a cutaway view into the 1st floor hallway. Even with this dramatic open 2-story space, the home still offers generous bedroom & bathroom spaces, a sunny formal dining room & well-equipped kitchen (with pantry closet & all new appliances). When the home was rebuilt, it got all new electric, plumbing, heating, central air, and an exterior drainage system to keep the basement (w/lots of additional potential) nice & dry. The covered front porch has recessed lighting & is a great size. Add the very spacious yard, 2-car garage & shed - and you really have a fantastic home with lots of options!
