Residential on 6.11 Acres

N/A, Patterson, NY

This stunning Post and Beam Converted Barn holds the secrets of the past with the convenience of modern times. Pulling in, you will be amazed by the serenity and privacy offered minutes from the bustling world, and less than 60 minutes to NYC. This bucolic property offers 6+ acres with an inground pool, pond with gazebo, out building with heat and loft, secret garden and many manicured trails for your enjoyment. Upon entering this 1920s converted barn, you are swept into the entry with hardwood floors, wainscoting detail, wallpaper representing the era and into the soaring center of the home. Here you will be greeted by picture windows with stunning views, an open kitchen with stone counter tops, tiled flooring and brick backsplash, a step up to the formal dining area, sitting area with built-ins and a reading nook, and a cozy den with a fireplace and two glass doors that open to the front patio all with exposed beams and original details throughout. To the right of the entry, you will find a full bath, storage closet and the stairway to the second floor with built-ins. On the top floor landing, there is a bright sitting area and a full bath with corner shower, closets and a bedroom with hardwood floors, built ins and a step-up window seat reading nook. Down the wide hallway with a balcony overlooking the center of the home you will find storage, built-ins and a bedroom. Continuing down the hall, there are 2 additional bedrooms. The lower level offers a bedroom with walk out to a stunning sunroom, multiple living spaces including game room, den/office, living room, full bath, laundry room with a walk out to a private back deck. Additionally, there is a whole house generator two-car garage plus workshop (one side and workshop is heated). The pictures and description will not do this property justice. Come see this hidden gem. Additional Information: Amenities:Pedestal Sink,Stall Shower,ParkingFeatures:2 Car Attached
