Residential on 0.23 Acres

N/A, Bronxville, NY

Designed by celebrated NYC architect Lucien Pisciotta in 1965, this Mid-Century modern home is an American classic. The elevated main floor offers a fully open concept living area along with three bedrooms and two full bathrooms that include the Primary with ensuite. The second level offers an “in-law” fourth bedroom complete with an adjacent full bathroom and continues with another sweeping open concept family room and bar with glass doors to the private deck overlooking a large level backyard surrounded by old-growth trees. The walk-out basement offers additional living space with a separate office/bonus room that extends to a gym area, laundry, half bath and storage room. This home was extensively renovated down to the studs in 2018 fully integrating every “next level” modern detail from Nest thermostats to a heated garage. Please review the full list of “Renovations and Updates” included in the photo roll of the listing. Additional efforts were also made to maintain the Mid-Century Modern vibe that graces this stunning house allowing it to radiate both a classic and contemporary appeal that is rarely found today. Meticulous and timeless- not to be missed.
